Lippomix's natural USP (United States Pharmacopeia) Progesterone Lipo-Gest™ Cream is a bio-identical hormone or progesterone that exactly duplicates the progesterone naturally produced in the human body. Our Lipo-Gest™ Progesterone Cream is designed to help both pre-menopausal and menopausal women feel balanced, refreshed and rejuvenated on a monthly basis. When applying, rotate the area of application between chest, abdomen, inner arms, and thighs. Apply twice a day, morning and evening.
